6100 Oak Tree Blvd. Independence Ohio, United States – May 2023: Tsunati Inc., professional services and integration company specializing in Data Protection, Cloud Computing, and Virtualization proudly announces it has been selected as the 2023 Veeam Accredited Service Partner (VASP) of the year by Veeam® Software, the leader in Modern Data Protection and Ransomware Recovery, has announced the winners of the Veeam Partner of the Year Award for 2022 in North America. The awards are held annually to reward the outstanding success and commitment of Veeam ProPartner Value-Added Resellers (VAR) and Veeam Cloud & Service Provider (VCSP) partners. With a 100 percent channel ecosystem, Veeam recognizes partners who have not only demonstrated success providing Veeam solutions to joint customers but who have also surpassed expectations in delivering industry-leading solutions and services that keep businesses running. Winners were celebrated during VeeamON 2023, the community event for data recovery experts of the year, taking place in Miami, FL May 22 – 24.

Tsunati was recognized as Veeam Accredited Service Partner (VASP) of the Year, North America, the partner who demonstrates exceptional performance delivering valuable business outcomes to Veeam customers. A partner that is actively engaged in services implementations, in addition to having a strong commitment to Veeam training and certification of their organization.

“Business leaders are facing increased challenges in this era of heightened cyber-attacks and ransomware,” said Kevin Rooney, Vice President of Americas channel at Veeam. “We believe the combination of great technology and strong partnerships is what can help organizations protect themselves from these threats and, if the worst happens, enable them to rapidly recover and keep their business running. I’m extremely proud of our 2023 Veeam Partner of the Year Award winners and am excited to celebrate their achievements this week as part of VeeamON 2023.”

“We take immense pride in this recognition and our appreciation goes out to Veeam and the opportunity we have to work together. We would also like to acknowledge our dedicated team led by our CTO Tim Myers, our esteemed clients, and valued partners for making this award possible. Moving forward, we aim to strengthen our partnership with Veeam and achieve further growth by providing best-in-class solutions and support to our clients” quoted by Stoney Hall, President and CEO at Tsunati, Inc.

The Veeam Impact Partner Awards represents the top recognition for partners that have not only excelled in delivering exceptional Veeam solutions to their customers but have also exceeded expectations in providing unparalleled support, expert knowledge, and continued education on Veeam's products.
